

Questions

There are no questions for this video as it was being used to show you how to find errors.

A good way to improve your skills at this is to work with a colleague. Take it in turns to make a small deliberate error to the script and see how long it takes the other person to find the error. You can even time how long it takes to make it more competitive!